

All About Love: A modern day adaptation of Shakespeares comedy romance

ALL ABOUT LOVE is a modern day version of Taming of the Shrew. the romantic comedy holds true to Shakespeares story about love and family life. It depicts the romance of Peter Roditis and Katherine Kincaid, the headstrong, obdurate shrew. This dramatic version has Katherine being the daughter of an ad executive, who without thinking offers Katherines hand in marriage to Peter who happens to be the son of the owner of the restaurant they are eating in. Katherine accidentally drops her wallet while dining. Peter takes it upon himself to return wallet to the family business Katherine works at and is mistakenly hired as Katherines secretary. Peter is actually smitten by Katherine and takes it upon himself to romance Katherine and tame the shrew within while hiding the fact hes studying for his MBA in business. This is a story inspired by love at first sight.
