

A Soldiers Christmas

About this play: In the Shenandoah Valley, in the midst of the American Civil War, the meaning of Christ's birth and death are given greater significance to one rebel soldier after his life is spared by a friend who gave up his own. Candle Star Christmas Productions is a series of simple-to-produce Christmas plays designed for small churches or schools. Each one immerses viewers in a powerful story that clearly presents the gospel message, leaving no question about the true meaning of Christmas. Combined with suggested music (not included), estimated lengths range between forty-five minutes to one hour. PAPERBACK version grants full reproduction rights to purchaser within purchaser's organization.
