

Twenty Contemporary New Zealand Poets: An Anthology

As the first anthology of its kind to be published outside New Zealand in decades, this anthology showcases the countrys diverse literary scene through works from 20 different poets. Whether the authors were born in the 1960s, prominent in the 1980s, or part of a younger generation, they all represent the distinctive poetic voice coming out of modern New Zealand. Through intellectual inquiry, playing freely with lyric expectation, formal innovation, and a fiercely fond attention to the uniqueness of the countrys life and speech, all of the selections extend the boundaries of their medium.
