

Poems For A Platypus

This is a book of my poetry that platypi have indicated they love. Most people don't know that platypi love a good short poem, a saucy limerick, or a tight Haiku. They don't care for epics because a platypus's attention span is not that strong. Though it might seem at first glance, that this is a book of Haiku, it is not. I write what I feel, and I feel short poems most of the time that mirror the traditional Haiku style. However, there are many poems that are not in that style, because, well, that's not what I felt at the time of the writing. Enjoy the same poems as the platypi, and you too can feel as carefree as they do, enjoying the moment, reflecting deeply, then swimming on to their next adventure. Platypus Playing Fun and delightful Eating, swimming, and mating A life never dull
