INDEPENDENT LIVING SKILLS

Lots of the topics covered in this website are part of independent living skills and you may be surprised by how much is involved in looking after yourself. You don't have to be completely on your own and if you are finding things difficult you should always have someone to turn to for help. This does not [...]

USEFUL DOCUMENTS

There are a number of documents that you will need to have as you live more independently. BIRTH CERTIFICATE You need your birth certificate as proof of identity and you will need it to get other documents such as a passport. Social Services may have a copy of your birth certificate that they are [...]

FacebookTwitterGoogle+
HEALTH

It is your social worker or young personal advisor's job to make sure you are registered with a doctor (also called GP) and a dentist. It is important not to leave registering with a GP until you need medical help. Keep the contact details for your doctor and out of hours contact number safe. DENTIST [...]

EDUCATION

SCHOOL You should already have a designated person in school who is there to help and support you. This could be a teacher or another person in the school. They are responsible for writing your Personal Educational Plan (PEP) and making sure everything happens. Your educational plan should help you to do the best [...]
